Master of Arts in Occupational Therapy

Congratulations on the completion of your degree requirements for the Master of Arts in Occupational Therapy. Review this document to learn how to submit your thesis to Sophia, St. Catherine University's Institutional Repository.

By placing your work in Sophia, all materials are searchable via Google and other search engines. Materials that are located in Sophia are freely accessible to the world; however, your copyright protects against unauthorized use of the content.

Here is what you need to do:

1. Secure final approval of your thesis from your advisor.
2. Provide the OSOT Department with a final approved version of your thesis or research project in a Word document.
3. Sign this permission form, including the "Notice of Original Work" below.
4. There are circumstances in which the work can be withheld from public view for up to one year. This is called an embargo. Situations warranting an embargo include copyright agreements with a potential publisher. You may hold back public release of this thesis for one year. There are no permanent embargoes.
5. The OSOT Administrative Assistant will forward the approved thesis and permission form to Heather Tompkins in the St. Catherine University Libraries for inclusion in Sophia.

Notice of Original Work and Use of Copyright Protected Materials

If your work includes images that are not original works by you, you must include permissions from original content provider or the images will not be included in the electronic copy. If your work includes discs with music, data sets, or other accompanying material that is not original work by you, the same copyright stipulations apply. If your work includes interviews, you must include a statement that you have permission from the interviewees to make their interviews public.
